17. Accordingly, at all relevant times hereto, Defendants PAUL MICHAEL MILLER was Plaintiff's employer within the meaning and the intent of the FLSA, and the NYLL.
18. At all times relevant to the allegations contained in the complaint, Corporate Defendants was, and is, an enterprise engaged in interstate commerce within the meaning of the FLSA in that MACHINERY EQUIPMENT REBUILDER INC., (i) has purchased goods, tools, and supplies for its business through the streams and channels of interstate commerce, and has had employees engaged in interstate commerce, and/or in the production of goods intended for commerce, and handle, sell and otherwise work with goods and material that have been moved in or produced for commerce by any person: and (ii) has had annual gross volume of sales of not less than $500,000.00.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

19. Plaintiff EDWIN OSWALDO MARIN ACOSTA was employed by MACHINERY EQUIPMENT REBUILDER INC., as a repair worker and laborer while performing related miscellaneous duties for the Defendants, from in or around March 2020 until in or around August 2022.
20. Plaintiff EDWIN OSWALDO MARIN ACOSTA regularly worked approximately six (6) days per week during his employment with the Defendants.
21. During Plaintiff's employment with the Defendants, Plaintiff regularly worked the following schedule of shifts:

- i. beginning at approximately 8:00 a.m. each workday and regularly ending at approximately 7:00 p.m. or later, six (6) days per week from in or around March 2020 until in or around December 2020;
 - ii. beginning at approximately 8:00 a.m. each workday and regularly ending at approximately 10:00 p.m. or later, six (6) days per week from in or around January 2021 until in or around December 2021; and
 - iii. beginning at approximately 8:00 a.m. each workday and regularly ending at approximately 4:00 p.m. or later, six (6) days per week from in or around January 2022 until in or around August 2022.
22. Thus, Plaintiff was regularly required to work approximately sixty-six (66) hours or more hours each week from in or around March 2020 until in or around December 2020; approximately eighty-four (84) hours or more hours each week from in or around January 2021 until in or around December 2021 and approximately forty-eight (48) hours or more hours each week from in or around January 2022 until in or around August 2022.
23. Plaintiff EDWIN OSWALDO MARIN ACOSTA was paid by Defendants a flat hourly rate of approximately:
- i. $20.00 per hour from in or around March 2020 until in or around December 2020;
 - ii. $25.00 per hour from in or around January 2021 until in or around December 2021; and
 - iii. $35.00 per hour from in or around January 2021 until in or around August 2022.
24. Although Plaintiff regularly worked approximately sixty-six (66) hours or more hours each week from in or around March 2020 until in or around December 2020; approximately eighty-four (84) hours or more hours each week from in or around January 2021 until in or around December 2021 and approximately forty-eight (48) hours or more hours each week from in or around January 2022 until in or around August 2022, the Defendants did not pay Plaintiff at a wage rate of time and a half (1.5) for his hours regularly worked over forty (40) hours in a work week, a blatant violation of the overtime provisions contained in the FLSA and NYLL.

25. Additionally, Defendants paid Plaintiff EDWIN OSWALDO MARIN ACOSTA on a bi-weekly basis during the relevant statutory period, failing to timely pay Plaintiff for his first week of wages and thus violated the frequency of pay requirements of NYLL § 191 by failing to pay him on a weekly basis.
26. As a manual worker and laborer, Defendants were required to pay Plaintiff within seven (7) days of earning his wages, which Defendants failed to do.
27. Upon information and belief, Defendants willfully failed to post notices of the minimum wage and overtime wage requirements in a conspicuous place at the location of their employment as required by both the NYLL and the FLSA.
28. Upon information and belief, Defendants willfully failed to keep payroll records as required by both NYLL and the FLSA.
29. Additionally, Defendants willfully failed to provide Plaintiff with a written notice, in English, of his applicable regular rate of pay, regular pay day, and all such information as required by NYLL §195(1).
30. Upon information and belief, Defendants willfully failed to provide Plaintiff with any wage statements, upon each payment of his wages, as required by NYLL §195(3).
31. As a result of these violations of Federal and New York State labor laws, Plaintiffs seek compensatory damages and liquidated damages in an amount exceeding $100,000.00. Plaintiff also seeks statutory interest, attorneys' fees, costs, and all other legal and equitable remedies this Court deems appropriate.

COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

32. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of themselves, and other employees similarly situated as authorized under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b). The employees similarly situated are hereafter, the "Collective Class."
33. Collective Class: All persons who are or have been employed by the Defendants as repair worker and laborer or any other similarly titled personnel with substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, who were performing the same sort of functions for Defendants, other than the executive and management positions, who have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures,

- protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay required overtime wages.
34. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed approximately 10 to 15 employees or more during the relevant statutory period who Defendants subject(ed) to similar unlawful payment structures that violated applicable law.
 35. Defendants suffered and permitted Plaintiff - and the Collective Class - to regularly work more than forty hours per week without appropriate overtime compensation.
 36. Defendants' unlawful conduct herein has been widespread, repeated, and consistent.
 37. Defendants had knowledge that the Plaintiff and the Collective Class regularly performed work requiring overtime pay.
 38. Defendants' conduct as set forth in this Complaint, was willful and in bad faith - and has caused significant damages to Plaintiff, as well as the Collective Class.
 39. Defendants are liable under the FLSA for failing to properly compensate Plaintiff, and the Collective Class, and as such, notice should be sent to the Collective Class. There are numerous similarly situated current and former employees of Defendants who have been denied overtime pay and proper minimum wage pay in violation of the FLSA and NYLL, who would benefit from the issuance of a Court-supervised notice of the present lawsuit, and the opportunity to join the present lawsuit. Those similarly situated employees are known to Defendants and are readily identifiable through Defendants' records.
 40. The questions of law and fact common to the putative class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members.
 41. The claims of Plaintiff are typical of the claims of the whole putative class.
 42. Plaintiff and their counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the putative class.
 43. A collective action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy.
